LINCOLN COUNTY RECORD.

FORMERLY THE POCHE WEEKLY RECORD.

VOL. LI.

PIOCHE, NEVADA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 10, 1900.

NO. 7.

Qualification of a District Attorney.

A late arrival from Missouri in giving his ideas of the qualifications one should possess to become District Attorney and to be able to fill the office in the manner it should be filled stated "that it should be filled by a lawyer, not one of those pettifoggers, but one who has learned the law as a science." When asked if he had been admitted to practice yet by the Supreme Court, replied "No, I have higher recommendations than that, I have a diploma from a law school, where they teach law as a science."

It is too bad that a few of us are relegated to live so far from civilization; and again we should be thankful that the waves of pity for the human kind periodically strike an inhabitant of some Eastern town, who deems it his duty to tell us of our wants. We should feel grateful for these occasional blessings, and thank God that they do not occur any oftener than is absolutely necessary.

During the week there has been rain all around Pioche, but in the town, none has fallen. The weather is very cool, and on rising early in the morning, the first thought that crawls into a person's mind, is that they wished there was a little fire in the stove to turn their back's to, and warm up.

Frank Crow, aged 23 years who has been suffering with typhoid fever died last Tuesday noon, at Stateline. Frank Crow was a stepson of J. G. Brown, of that town.

The first melons of the season appeared in town Tuesday. They tell that the colored people like water melons. How about the "white trash?"

Political announcements will be run from now till election for $5. Shy your caster into the ring and let the public know what office you seek.

Mike Williams departed from Stateline the other day for British Columbia. He goes to "freeze" up with the country this winter.

Attorney Benj Sanders, who has been spending a couple of weeks in town departed for DeLamar Wednesday morning.

The claim owners throughout the county are now making preparations to do their annual assessment work for 1900.

Newspaper men love holidays. They just go crazy with joy every time one is announced. They get up just in time to go to work and all the fellows they know are going to take girls to see some old thing do something, and they have to go along wherever they're sent, fight their way through the crowd and find out the story of the life of the man who got the medal for eating the most watermelon, and then rush to another bunch and ask the name and place of residence of a sweet young girl who sprained her breath and fainted while running for a vacant chair. While taking notes everyone within twenty feet makes a suggestion as to how the incident should be written up, and after about thirty-seven such sieges the reporter gets back to the office and spends most of the night telling what fun everyone had at such and such a place.

The meddlesome man always finds plenty of chances to stick his beak in. He knows all about school elections and how they should be conducted. He knows how party politics are running in all parties, having affiliated with all of them. He knows the financial standing of every man in the community. In fact, he knows everything except that the people speak of him as an arrogant, meddlesome ass with more gall than brains.—Exchange.

The life of an editor is always free from care. They have to stand this up in Newman Georgia. "Come and look mother," said a little boy, "there goes an editor." "My son, you should not make sport of the poor man; you cannot tell to what extremity you may yet come."

In a certain district not far from Eureka the trustees promised the school to five different young ladies, and now they are trying to decide whether to spend the winter at Nome or at the Paris exposition.—Sentinel.

Not the Lady.

A minister, walking along the street a few days since, met a lady for whom he recently performed the marriage service. Desiring to renew the acquaintance (for the lady had interested him greatly at the time), he accosted her with the remark:

"Madam, did I not have the pleasure of marrying you a few days since?"

"I was married a few days since, sir."

"Yes; I thought I was not mistaken; I married you."

"Indeed! well, I thought my husband was a much younger man than you are, but I have not seen enough of him to make his acquaintance thoroughly. By the way my dear, my chignon is getting shabby; please give me some money to buy a water-fall." Evidently this was more than the minister bargained for, and with a hasty bow accompanied by the remark: "No, you are not the lady—I'm mistaken." He took his leave.

State University Opening.

Following is the calendar for the opening of the Nevada State University, 1900.

August 27—Summer vacation end.

August 28—First semester begins.

August 28-29—(Tuesday-Wednesday)—Examination for admission to all departments.

August 30-31 (Thursday-Friday)—Matriculation and registration of students.

September 3 (Monday)—Recitations and lectures in all departments begin.

A man came to Reno last week and went to a physician, saying that he wanted a wound made in his right side and another in the back. He said he knew the request was a funny one, "but," said he, "I am all right in the upper story, and do not want you to ask why I make such a peculiar request, but I want it done."

The man was in good health, sound mentally and physically, and apparently in good spirits. Another doctor was called, his back and side frozen, the operation performed, and the fellow took the train for the east last night apparently happy.—Gazette.

The Eureka Consolidated smelter at Eureka is being dismantled and the machinery is being converted into scrap iron for shipment to San Francisco.—Silver State.

Last year the product of Alaskan gold amounted to about $20,000,000. This year it will amount to at least $24,000,000, according to the best estimates.

Colonel Marshal of the United States Army is in San Francisco and this week will visit points in Nevada for the purpose of buying cavalry horses for use in China.

A gambling house at Wadsworth was robbed of about $540 one night last week, by two masked men, who at the point of revolvers held up the inmates and stowed away the money in a sack.

Although the valuation of the Southern Pacific Company's property in California have greatly increased in the past fourteen years, it is now assessed at $10,000,000 less than in 1886.—Tuscorora Times Review.

No white man has ever seen the Empress Dowager nor has her picture ever been taken. This fact may account for the wonderful multiplicity of her portraits as published in the American press.

An apothecary's boy was sent to leave at a house a box of pills, and at another six live fowls. Confused on the way he left the pills where the fowls should have gone, and the fowls at the pill place. The folks who got the fowls were astonished at reading the accompany directions: "Swallow one every two hours."

Senator Clark of Montana sailed for Europe last week, and before leaving admitted to a reporter that he had made a contribution to the Democratic campaign fund. As to the amount of that contribution the Senator would only say: "Yes, I may have given a check for $100,000 to the Democratic campaign fund. Perhaps it was more than that amount."

A Summons appears under New To-day.

Death of A. Skillman.

A. Skillman, editor and proprietor of the Eureka Sentinel, died in San Francisco Wednesday after a long illness. Mr. Skillman was a pioneer printer and journalist of the Pacific Coast. He settled in San Francisco in 1850 and established the Pacific News, one of the first newspapers published in that city.

As a newspaper man Mr. Skillman did much to build up Nevada. As a citizen he was true and loyal.

The funeral services took place at 11 o'clock Friday morning at the Mortuary Chapel of the Odd Fellows Crematory, San Francisco.

The anti-cigarette crusade is rapidly gaining strength throughout the country. Swift & Co., the big Chicago packers, who employ 10,000 men, have issued an order prohibiting the use of cigarettes by employees.

A road has been opened to the antimony mines seven miles south of Austin, Lander county, and the extraction of ore will begin next week. The Reveille says there is an abundance of ore uncovered.—Silver State.

NEW-TO-DAY.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Fourth Judicial District, Lincoln County, State of Nevada.

The State of Nevada Sends Greeting to J. C. Stewart, Geo. L. Huntress, Benj. N. Johnson, Henry J. Mackey, Alfred A. Glasier, L. C. Bradley, F. V. Meloy, D. Evans and Peabody.

You are hereby notified to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by John H. Kiernan and Scott Allen, as plaintiffs, in the Fourth Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, Lincoln County, at the town of Pioche, and answer the complaint therein, which is on file with the clerk of said court, within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of day of service) if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within this District and in all other cases forty days, or judgment by default will be taken against you, according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to recover judgment against you, the said defendants and for a decree, to quiet title to a two-thirds interest, undivided, in a certain lode mining claim, situated in the "Copper King Mining District," Lincoln County Nevada, known as and called the "Key West" mining claim. To counsel and set aside all deeds which purport to convey any portion of said two-thirds interest in said mining claim to any person or persons by deed given by defendant J. C. Stewart.

To have the defendants Alfred A. Glasier, L. C. Bradley, F. V. Meloy, Henry S. Mackey, D. Evans and Peabody show what interest they have, if any, in said mining claim. All of which will now fully appear by referring to the complaint on file in the Clerk's office at Pioche, a certified copy of which is attached to a copy of the summons in this action and served on defendant J. C. Stewart.

And you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will take judgment against you for the relief demanded in the prayer of the Complaint, and for their costs in this action.

In Testimony whereof, I, Benj. Sanders have hereunto set my hand and official seal, this 26th day of July, A. D. 1900.

BENJ. SANDERS,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

By resolution,

Saturday, August 25, 1900.

was designated for the holding of primaries of other than selecting the delegates from the different counties. It was further resolved that in a case where considered feasible, and practicable, the election of delegates should be in primary form. It was also resolved that the State Central Committee, such committee as may be formed, be authorized to call primaries or caucuses at such places as they may deem proper, and to designate delegates from their respective counties.

The test for voters at the primaries is as follows:

"I favor the free and unlimited mining of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and I pledge myself to vote for the nominees of the Democratic State Convention."

CHAR. O'LEARY, Chairman.
JOHN H. DENNIS, Secretary.

An Indiana man claims to have succeeded in playing a thorough confidence game upon the potato bugs. He planted a grain of corn in each potato hill, and as the corn came up first the bugs thought it was a corn field and started for other scenes.

Captain DeLamar is reported to be willing to invest in copper mines if he can find anything that will pay 6 per cent on the money so invested.—Silver State.

The man who never makes any enemies might as well be dead for all the good he does in the world.

SILVER PARTY STATE Convention

HEADQUARTERS OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF THE SILVER PARTY, RENO, NEVADA, JUNE 15th, 1900.

AT A MEETING OF THE STATE CENTRAL Committee of the Silver Party of Nevada, held at Reno, Nevada, on April 12, 1900, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Communication of the Democratic State Central Committee is regarded as "Fusion," is met with favor by this body, and that a Committee be appointed to confer with a like committee from that body to arrange that both conventions meet at the same time and place, and that the question of fusion be left with the conventions.

In compliance with the above resolution, the acting chairman of the State Central Committee appointed such committee and in due time the following report was filed:

RENO, Nevada, April 14, 1900.
